

2. STRATEGY

Sovcomflot's development strategy is to further expand the share of industrial business while focusing on the most profitable conventional business segments, based on implementation of advanced technologies, including those related to environmental protection, and strengthening of cooperation with key charterers.